About the Awards

The Stiletto Boss Awards is an event to celebrate the 'EVERYDAY SUPERWOMAN'. The Everyday Superwoman is a woman who is far from average, nowhere near mediocre and is often overlooked and under-celebrated.

Stiletto Boss Nominees are queens of all sizes, shapes, colors, and backgrounds making the world more amazing by pushing societal boundaries, working diligently to make a difference in their communities, and walking in excellence every day!

In 2014, the founder of the Stiletto Boss Awards, Staci PurPose Kirk, saw a need to celebrate women who had been overlooked by other platforms but were beyond worthy of honor and recognition. She set out to create an event that brought women together to share in the celebration of sisterhood, entrepreneurship, womanhood, and the existence of these unsung sheroes. Over the years this staple event in Cleveland, Ohio has celebrated entrepreneurs, community service leaders, local television celebrities, and countless women who have shifted the paradigm of what success looks like now and for the future. The awards have now reached outside of Ohio and captured the attention of news outlets, magazines, and other media platforms locally and abroad. It is now being called the "Oscars of Cleveland".

Staci promised when she started this amazing event that 'each year we will be bigger and better because that is what these women deserve' and each year she and her team have done just that!

Dear Potential Partner,

Thank you for your time and attention! We truly appreciate you and hope that you will partner with us to make a memorable evening not only for the nominees and winners but also for the city of Cleveland. The more engaging and celebratory events we do together, the stronger the bonds we will form across our community.

Your sponsorship not only goes to the production of this amazing event, it also helps to continue programs such as Sis11; a program that specifically supports women facing a challenging time and needing immediate support. Funds raised from this event will also assist Authentic Healing Cancer Support group in our effort to ease the mental, financial, and emotional trauma of a cancer diagnosis for patients and their loved ones.
